Support
Coordination

At Anowah, our Support Coordinators are dedicated to empowering, educating, and supporting you to achieve your NDIS goals. We work in partnership with you to maximize your plan, connect you with the right services, and ensure your preferences and choices are always respected. We firmly believe in “nothing about you, without you.”

Our mission is to help individuals build independence, foster meaningful connections, and confidently navigate their unique NDIS journey. We collaborate closely with you, your family, and your support network at every stage.

Anowah, founded in 1967 is a not-for-profit NDIS registered disability support provider based in South West Sydney. Our purpose is driven by, 'empowering adults with disability to live with dignity, choice and belonging – every day, for life.

Why Choose Anowah?

- Experienced and passionate Support Coordinators with a strong understanding of the NDIS and the NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission.
- Commitment to person-centred, ethical, and fair support within NDIS guidelines and practice standards.
- Active members of NDIS peak bodies such as NDS and DIA, and deeply engaged in our local community—giving us access to valuable networks and resources.

Managing Conflict of Interest

Your choice and control are our priority. We will always present a diverse range of external services and will never influence you to engage other services within our organisation.

What our clients say

“The care and compassion shown by Anowah to Rita and I has been second to none and I don't know how I would have been able to get through the last few months without that support.”

- John

“Thank you so much for all your support and assistance for Masato's transition. We are really grateful.”

- Noriko

“Thanks again for all your help navigating through this and I am sure June would really appreciate all the effort that has been provided to help us achieve the best outcome for her.”

- Paul
